PLEASE READ THIS ADVICE CAREFULLY

Please check all information in this booking confirmation carefully and if any details are incorrect contact the UK CAA Exams Admin Department as soon as possible. Contact details can be found via www.caa.co.uk

REPORTING TIME

Please arrive at your examination venue at least THIRTY MINUTES before the start of each examination, and present your booking confirmation to the exam invigilator if requested.

IDENTIFICATION

- You will need to prove your identity by showing photographic ID. This identification must be the same as the document you declared during your e-Exams service registration that you would bring to each examination sitting.
- Your identity document will be checked before your exam and must be valid (current) at that time. Following physical inspection, your e-Exams service account will reflect a 'Verified' status for your identity document.
- If you do not produce this ID you will not be allowed to sit the examination and you will lose the examination fee.
- Only the person named on the booking confirmation can sit the examination. Please do not attend the examination if you are not the named candidate.

ATTENDANCE

- If you do not attend your scheduled examination, you will lose the fee and will need to rebook if you want to sit it again.
- Please do not arrive late as you will miss important instructions, and you may not be able to sit the examination, which will also mean you lose the examination fee. You should wear suitable clothing for the examination, outside coats and headgear should be stored in the secure area provided at the venue.

Note: The CAA accepts no responsibility for any personal items/equipment which a candidate brings to the examination hall and which he/she is not permitted to retain during an examination.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

- Any infringement of examination regulations may result in the candidate being disqualified in any subject that has been taken and barred from further participation in future examinations for a period of at least 12 months. If a candidate chooses to ignore any of these regulations, immediate removal from the examination room may be imposed.
- On attendance at the Examination Venue you will be required to sign the Attendance Register, in signing this you are agreeing not to be involved in any behavior considered by the CAA as Misconduct.

COPY WRITE

- Each electronic test you undertake will contain a statement regarding Copy Write, candidates who attempt to or who copy any part of the electronic test including workbooks and appendices, will be disqualified and may also be excluded from any future examinations for a period of at least 12 months.

TEST INSTRUCTIONS

- Essay questions will be displayed on the computer screen when the candidate has logged on to the exam. The essay answers will however be handwritten onto the answer sheet provided on the desk and collected by the invigilator at the end of the examination time. The completed answer sheets will be scanned and forwarded for manual marking by the subject matter experts
- You will be provided an examination candidate login form showing your examination details. You may use the reverse side of this form as rough working paper. This form, and other material supplied, MUST be given to the invigilator at the end of the examination before leaving the room. You must not take any notes relating to the exam from the examination room.
- Please make sure your booking confirmation and identification are visible for checking by the invigilator during your examination.
- You must follow any instructions from the invigilator, particularly any concerning log on and starting the exam. If you do not follow these instructions, you will be asked to leave the examination and you will lose your examination fee.
- Talking or any other unnecessary noise is not allowed in the examination room at any time. If you wish to speak to the invigilator remain seated and raise your hand. Only general questions will be answered. You will not be given meanings or explanations of words used in the questions. Communicating with anyone other than the examination invigilator during the examination is not allowed.
- If you choose to leave the examination room before you have finished your examination you must be accompanied by an Invigilator. Your allotted examination time will continue to run and no additional time will be permitted.
- The use of electronic devices is not allowed.
- Reference material may only be made to publications which are detailed in the terms and conditions.
- Please refer to the list of supplied and permitted materials on your booking confirmation as only these materials will be allowed into the examination environment.
- By signing the attendance register, you confirm that you have read and understood all notices to candidates.
- If you are sitting an essay exam you will be provided with blank essay paper to complete your essay(s). Your essay(s) must be completed on the essay paper and returned to the invigilator at the end of the session.

NOTES

- Candidates for Aircraft Maintenance Licenses are advised to consult:
  - (a) Part 66.
  - (b) Learning Objectives (LOs) at appropriate level.
- All candidates are reminded that Information Notices and Aeronautical Information Circulars (White) published by the CAA are the means of conveying early warnings of, and short notice changes to, any of the examination requirements or timetables.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES

The UK Civil Aviation Authority Examination Rules prohibit cheating or any behaviour that the CAA deems as misconduct for licensing examinations. A candidate who disregards any rules may be removed from the examination room and may be barred from future examinations. Where an examination candidate has been involved in any malpractice the CAA will apply a ban on future examination sittings as specified by Part 66, being a minimum of 12 months.

The CAA does not consent to a person copying any copyrighted documents or questions in each electronic test undertaken in any form (e.g. in writing, removal from the examination room or by any electronic medium). This includes workbooks and appendices. Persons found infringing copyright rules will be disqualified and may also be excluded from any future examinations.

Candidates will be provided with an Exam Candidate Login Form with your Name, Workstation No, Client ID, Login Pin, and instructions to candidates. You must read the instructions to candidates and sign at the bottom of the form in the space provided. You may use the reverse side of this form for your rough work except you must return this form to the Invigilator before you leave the examination room.

The examination room is under constant monitoring, any infringements as stated above may result in exclusion from future examinations.

Please comply with all instructions given by the invigilator.

Silence is observed at all times, communicating with anyone other than the examination invigilator during the examination may be treated as a misconduct case.

If you choose to leave the examination room before you have finished your examination you must be accompanied by an Invigilator. Your allotted examination time will continue to run and no additional time will be permitted.

The use of electronic devices is not allowed.

By signing the session attendance register, you confirm that you have read and understood the above notice.
