Important:

Restriction on Carriage of Older Generation 15-Inch MacBook Pro on Malaysia Airlines

Following Apple's worldwide recall of the 15-inch MacBook Pro laptop batteries sold between September 2015 and February 2017, Malaysia Airlines passengers are not permitted to carry the affected model as checked baggage until further notice. The laptops must be placed in the cabin baggage and subject to specific conditions:

- The device must not be used and must be switched off at all times throughout the flight
- The device must not be charged in the aircraft

Passengers who have performed the battery replacement under Apple's recall program must present documentation/receipt related to the battery replacement upon check-in and/or boarding.

Please refer to Apple's MacBook Pro Battery Recall Program page for more information.

- Malaysia Airlines check-in counters in KLIA will close 60 minutes before flight departure. Please visit MH Website for more details
- Online Check-in is only available for flights operated by Malaysia Airlines. If you are travelling on a codeshare flight operated by our partner carrier, please check-in through the operating carrier's website or at the check-in counter
- Please note that the web and mobile check-in options are not applicable to those travelling in groups, expectant mothers and passengers with special needs

New Zealand Electronic Travel Authority (NZeTA).

Effective 1 October 2019, some visitors and transit passengers visiting New Zealand will need to pay for a travel document and levy called the New Zealand Electronic Travel Authority (NZeTA).

Travellers will need to request theirs via the NZeTA official mobile app or website well in advance of travel.

Please note that the processing time can take up to 72 hours or more.

For more information, please visit <https://www.immigration.govt.nz/new-zealand-visas/apply-for-a-visa/tools-and-information/general-information/visa-waiver-countries>.

Passengers are encouraged to perform self-service check-in through our kiosk, mobile app or website. For those travelling out of KLIA please arrive at least 3 hours before departure for baggage drop or documentation processing.

To all Economy class passengers, treat yourself to extra space and comfort. Simply proceed to our check-in counters to know more about Last Minute Upgrade.

Thank you for choosing Malaysia Airlines. We look forward to welcoming you on board soon.
