

ADVISORY INFORMATION 24/2022

17 November 2022

SELF-HANDLING OF AIRCRAFT GROUND OPERATIONS

1 Introduction

- 1.1 The Civil Aviation Authority of Malaysia (CAAM) is issuing this Advisory Information (AI) all Air Operator Certificate (AOC) holders of Air Operator Certificate (AOC), Technical Approval Certificate (TAC) and aircraft operators with regards to self-handling of aircraft ground operations.
- 1.2 CAAM has published Civil Aviation Guidance Material (CAGM) 6004 – Guidance on Issuance and Renewal Requirements for AOC which supplements the published Civil Aviation Directive (CAD) 6 Part 1 and CAGM 6010 – Ground Handling, which supplements the published CAD 6010 – Ground Handling.

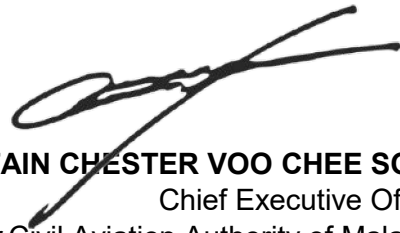

2 Self-Handling of Ground Operations

- 2.1 While self-handling of ground operations is allowed for all AOC holders, the technical requirements of the implementation shall conform to available requirements as published in the documents stated in paragraph 1.2 above.
- 2.2 All other aircraft operators are not allowed to perform ground operation on their own and shall appoint an approved TAC holder. The list of approved TAC holders is available on the CAAM website.

3 Correspondence

3.1 All correspondence and related issues shall be directed to CAAM Flight Operations Division's Ground Handling Unit as per details below:
