Date: 8th January 2021Subject: AW139 – In Service Event Notification in the Middle East Area

Dear Customer / Operator, with the present letter Leonardo Helicopters (LH) wishes to inform you about an In Service Event occurred on 1st of January 2021 on an AW139 in the Middle East Area.

During approach phases to the landing, presence of burning smell and smoke was reported in the cockpit coming from the overhead panel area. The crew precautionary decided to make an emergency landing that was safely completed without any injuries to the personnel on board or substantial damages to the helicopter.

LH immediately offered its support and availability to deploy a team on site in order to further investigate the event. While preliminary investigations are in progress, further communications will follow through usual official LH channels as necessary.

Should you need any additional information, do not hesitate to refer to the point of contact provided with the Customer Support & Training Worldwide Directory, available on the Leonardo Portal or send an e-mail to engineering.support.lhd@leonardocompany.com.

Yours Sincerely,

Gabriele Bordino
