

SERVICE INFORMATION LETTER

SUBJECT: Use of replacement parts

APPLICABILITY: All Saft aircraft batteries.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this SIL is to clarify Saft's position with respect to the use of replacement parts, following numerous inquiries from customers and authorized battery shops authorized regarding the use of replacement parts in Saft products.

2. Action

Saft manufactures, warrants and accepts liability for the spare parts and components it provides to customers for use on/in components and products manufactured by Saft.

Saft will not accept responsibility for any replacment or substitute part(s) of any kind other than those supplied by Saft and its authorized distributors.

Saft, and all affiliate companies within Saft group, indemnifies and holds itself harmless by virtue of this warning from any performance claim or expectation, and any failure and/or consequence thereof associated with the functionality and performance of its products when/if non-Saft replacement or substitute parts of any kind are used on/in Saft products.

The use of non-Saft replacement parts of any kind on/in components or products manufactured by Saft will void any and all warranties.

Thanking you for the consideration you will give to this information letter, we remain at your disposal for any further information you may require.

3. Documentation

The documentation for Saft Aircraft batteries are available online on the Saft website at www.Saft-batteries.com.
