The purpose of this Safety Promotion Notice is to promote the update of the Flight Physics Performance e-learning to our community of pilots.

A quiz is now available to test your knowledge when following the training on Flight Physics Performance.

To access the quiz:

- Open the "Flight Physics Performance" e-learning
- Select your language
- Select the course
- Then click on the Menu and scroll down to the end to select "Quiz".

Furthermore, in line with our constant commitment to improving the safety of your operations, we are providing you with a recoverable unanticipated yaw simulator, based on the interactive e-learning module and also available in the "Flight Physics Performance" e-learning.
